Saving Francesca has the same reality-based characters and sensibility, but more grounded in the day to day experience of the character in school & family (a little more typical YAF in that sense) in this sense, it makes sense that it was Ms. Marchetta's 2nd book.

Saving Francesca by Melina Marchetta Paperback Barnes

Saving Francesca is a wonderfully honest book. Things aren't perfect for Francesca, but all the things she thought were horrible -her new school, among them- turn out to be blessings in disguise. My favorites characters were Francesca and her friends Justine, Jimmy, and Thomas.
