HALF APRON. To make a half apron, cut 2 long lengths of ribbon and hem the edges. Sew each ribbon to a corner along the long length of the tea towel. If you insist on being fancy, you can hem them in a criss cross pattern, like this. Make sure you use enough ribbon so you can wrap the ribbon from the back of the apron around to your front.

The Apron. Fold in top two corners of the tea towel and trim. I folded my towel in thirds to decide where to cut. If you want it wider at the top try folding them in only 1/4. Trim off corners, turn raw edge under slightly and stitch close to the edge. Fold edge over wide enough for the ribbon to slip through, allowing enough for seam. Press.
