The Statue of Liberty Step into Reading Books Series A

In general, readers with adequate background to understand the text will not be interested in its condescending tone. Betsy Maestro's The Story of the Statue of Liberty (Lothrop, 1986) is a far better source for information on the subject.

What Is the Statue of Liberty by Joan Holub Goodreads

The statue of liberty was a good book because the statue was the tallest man made statue in new York. The statue was so tall you could see all of new York city. The statue was made all around the world in different pieces. The reason why they had to do that is because they didn't have enough material to build it in the same place.
