Ribsy Henry 6 by Beverly Cleary Goodreads

Ribsy is the story of the adventures of a dog that gets lost from his family. The story is told from the dog's perspective. It is written in first person. I chose the book because Beverly Cleary is a very well-known, well-loved author who has been around for years. However, I did not enjoy this story. It did not hold my interest.

Ribsy by Beverly Cleary Tracy Dockray Paperback

"Ribsy" is another entry in the Klickitat Street series of books. We've met Ribsy the dog in other books by Beverly Cleary, such as "Henry and Ribsy" and "Henry and the Paper Route", but this story is about a slightly older and (supposedly) wiser Ribsy. Ribsy wants to go for a ride in the new car to the shopping center, and finally gets his way.

Henry and Ribsy by Beverly Cleary

I loved the Henry and Ribsy books as a kid. Perhaps it was because I generally have a love for books written by Beverly Cleary, or maybe just because I am so into animals and human relationships. Ribsy was a hilarious fictional dog.
