Amazon com Emily the Strange The Lost Days

A great intro to the character Emily the Strange. She is smart, witty, adventurous, and delightfully misanthropic. In this story she's more than a little lost, but she embraces her situation and with astonishing creativity and aplomb - as well as a flair for scientific experimentation and willingness to flirt with the occult - and the amazing events that ensue are very entertaining.

Our graffiti Emily Magazine

@museum: Hey, are you familiar with a POV called first person ? It s generally considered quite effective (I mean, by writing instructors, textbooks, writing guides, and other authoritative teaching tools) for memoirs, autobiographical essays, and other forms of writing in which the author also functions as a character in the piece!
