Eye of the Needle by Ken Follett Goodreads

Eye of the Needle tells the story of a German master spy The Needle and his attempt to uncover the plans of the English army during World War 2 (a few weeks before D-Day). This book was a little light on the espionage and too much focused on the generic thriller formula.

How to Sew a Needle Book 9 Steps with Pictures

I have been using the same needle books for years. They are felt, covered in cat fur, and really not working for me. :D I decided that now that I am embroidering 10-15 hours a week, I really needed a nice needle book I can carry around with me.

Eye of the Needle Book Review Readers Lane

A tense thriller, Eye of the Needle is the novel that effectively launched Ken Follett's career as a novelist, also spawning a later movie. Set in WWII the story oscillates between three narratives the first being the shenanigans of a Nazi spy named die Nadel (the needle) who prefers to kill with a stiletto knife and has debunked allied

Wheedle on the Needle by Stephen Cosgrove Goodreads

I remembered this book from my childhood, when I was already too old to believe that there really was a wheedle on the Space Needle. This is the best modern place-specific kids book of all time. Most such books feel like you're reading through a forced list of tourist spots that they hope the adults reading the book will be happy for their kids to learn about.

Turn the needle book right side out and poke the corners into shape (a chopstick or the end of a small paintbrush work well for this). Sew the opening closed with ladder stitch. Use a doubled thread and a regular sewing needle. To give the cover of the needlebook a finished look, stitch around the edge with running stitch. Use three strands of floss and a coordinating floss color.

Eye of the Needle by Ken Follett Paperback Barnes Noble

Eye of the Needle was a great book. It was always hard to put down. The Eye of the Needle takes place in world war II. The book plays with your mind a little because it goes into the mind of two main characters. One of the main characters is a professor hired by the British government the other is a Nazi spy.

Ken Follett Bibliography Eye of the Needle

It gave the book a feel for the grain of every day life, something that my work had never had before. The richness of detail slows the writing down, but that was what my work needed. My early books were all too brisk and things happened too quickly. With Eye of the Needle, I got the pace right for the first time. The reader doesn't want you
