Creating Magic Review of Lee Cockerell's book

But above all, he is known for his creation of the Disney Great Leader Strategies. These guidelines still serve as the primary resource for developing all leaders at Disney. In addition, they form the core of the management training programs at the Disney Institute. In his new book Creating Magic , Cockerell explains how he came to his ideas.

Disney leadership is highly respected throughout the world and much of it is based on the principles described in Creating Magic. While practicing these leadership strategies, Disney has become the world's largest entertainment company. This suggests that these principles must have significant validity and value. Finally, the leadership strategy-
