The Valley of Adventure Adventure 3 by Enid Blyton

The Valley of Adventure is the third book in the series. This starts differently from the other two books. There is no relaxed fun and slow build up. It has a rapid start with Jack, Phillip, Lucy Ann and Dinah finding themselves marooned in a strange valley in the middle of nowhere with criminal elements for company.

The Valley of Adventure Adventure Series Enid Blyton

"Valley of Adventure" is a bit more heavily plotted than some of the other Adventure books, so the action moves around more, there are more secret places, there are multiple escapes and there are more secondary characters with important roles than is usual.

The Valley of Adventure by Enid Blyton

The children's main worry at first is that they have very little to eat: "An adventure was one thing but an adventure without anything to eat was quite another thing. That wouldn't do at all." Luckily, Juan and Pepi have a hut stocked with tins of food which the children raid when the men are elsewhere.
