Community Reviews. Most of it was good - but there was a lot that Funder is missing (both unintentionally and intentionally). He is a very biased author. This was a psych textbook I that I had read most of the way through for a class I took. As textbooks go, this one is an enjoyable read, so I finished it just for the heck of it,

Editorial Reviews. In this update of the 1997 "personality text with a personality," Funder (psychology, U. of California, Riverside) shows psychology students that personality psychology is exciting and relevant to everyday life. He covers the mainstay theories (now with a greater emphasis on cognitive approaches rather than psychoanalysis),
