Organic Grass Fed Meats Organic Prairie

Grass Fed Organic Meats Our beef comes from 100% grass-fed, organic cattle raised on family farms in the Channel Country of the Australian Outback. They are raised on certified organic pastures, which helps lower fat content and calories, and gives our meat higher levels of healthful Omega-3 fatty acids and richer flavor.

What is the difference between Grass Fed Beef and Organic

There is a lot of overlap between organic and Grass Fed beef, because both practices represent a dedication to raising healthier, less chemically-contaminated cows. However, not every cow raised on the pasture is USDA Certified Organic, and not every organic cow is fed a 100% grass diet or allowed unlimited access to the range.
