Where corporations are concerned, entity shielding involves two relatively distinct rules of law. The first is a priority rule that grants to creditors of the firm, as security for the firm's debts, a claim on the firm's assets that is prior to the claims of the personal creditors of the firm's owners.

Business Law Notes DPHU

Around the world, two basic legal systems exist, civil law and common law. In brief, civil law emphasizes legislation, while common law emphasizes decisions handed down by the courts. Civil law is the system of law derived from Roman law. Its focus is on the development of a comprehensive legislated code.

a question of law. (b) Duties of Promoters In the 19th century, it was common for promoters to sell their own property to a newly formed company at an inflated price, or to acquire assets for the company and receive a commission from the seller. The courts then began to impose a fiduciary duty on promoters similar to that imposed on agents.
