The Prophet Kahlil Gibran Google Books

The Prophet represents the acme of Kahlil Gibran's achievement. Writing in English, Gibran adopted the tone and cadence of King James I's Bible, fusing his personalised Christian philosophy with a spirit and oriental wisdom that derives from the richly mixed influences of his native Lebanon. His language has a breath-taking beauty.

About The Book Prophet

My name is Savannah and I'm a book lover who decided she wanted to share her book opinions with the world. I'm a girl who thinks the written word is an underappreciated medium that should be shared and loved more than it is. I read books, review books, discuss books, smell books, buy books, admire books, carry books, I live and breathe books.
