How I learned to draw realistic portraits in only 30 days

Draw in the level of the start of the nose. Draw in the bottom and middle of the lips. If you divide the distance between the bottom of the nose and the bottom of the chin into halves, the level of the bottom of the lips typically falls at the halfway point. Use this as a starting point to draw in this level.

7 Common Mistakes When Drawing a Portrait Darrel Tank

Since we can't see the entire iris of the eye inside of an eye-socket (thanks to the lids), it's easy to unintentionally draw them out-of-round . But, if you were to open your eyes super wide for a closer look in the mirror, you would see that the irises are round and fall in the center of the eyeball.
