Replay by Ken Grimwood Goodreads Share book

Replay is a book that had been lingering on my to-read stack for well-nigh three years before I finally got up the gumption to actually crack the cover. Once again I find myself a victim of the too-many-books-too-little-time syndrome which seems to plague all of us various Goodreaders and am kicking myself for waiting so long before reading

Replay by Ken Grimwood Paperback Barnes Noble

Replay begs to be read in one sitting, you just can't wait to find out what will happen next. This is a book I will purchase again (although I am still stalking the friend I lent the original hardcover to!). You will want to read Replay several times, there is always something you might have missed during prior reads.

Sharon Creech Replay by Sharon Creech

So what inspired this book? Two things mainly. The first was that I was thinking about how much of my life involves spinning scenes in my mind and then onto paper and I wondered if that came from the needing or wanting to reshape or replay the often chaotic scenes of real life.
