Q: I am really enjoying The Cleaner of Chartres but haven't quite finished it yet. I like the way it moves between different times. Did you spend a lot of time in Chartres before writing your book? What made you want to write about this area in France? EastEndGranny. A: See above. But I did go back and stay in the town (in fact in the jazz cafe, which has rooms, in the cathedral cloisters) while I wrote the book to make sure it was truly authentic.
