Travesty in Haiti A True Account of Christian Missions

TRAVESTY recounts how some Haitians use whatever means possible try to better their living standards, most recently drug trafficking, and in doing so explains why at the service of international narcotraffickers and Haitian money laundering elites, Haiti has become a failed State. TRAVESTY reads like a novel.

Travesty in Haiti Structural Violence

Travesty in Haiti. by Adam Burtle; April 30, 2011 If you want to know the [more recent] history of Haiti, read Paul Farmer's The Uses Of Haiti. And then read this book. Taken together, I think these two works inform a lay person better than a shelf full of other volumes on the same subject.
