If there was nothing whatsoever in space, we could no longer talk about the relative sizes of things. The most colossal volume of space say, for example, the entirety of the current observable universe would be no different from the tiniest conceivable volume, such as the space occupied by the most fundamental of fundamental particles, a quark.

Much Ado About Nothing 1993 DVD Talk

Much Ado About Nothing is a comedy, but "comedy" in Shakespeare has a very specific meaning that doesn't include "full of laughs all the way." Certainly, Much Ado About Nothing is lighter in tone than a tragedy like Othello or a history like Henry V, and the witty by-play of Beatrice and Benedick is a central element of the story.
