Introduction to Modern Literary Theory Kristi Siegel

New Criticism. A literary movement that started in the late 1920s and 1930s and originated in reaction to traditional criticism that new critics saw as largely concerned with matters extraneous to the text, e.g., with the biography or psychology of the author or the work's relationship to literary history.

Feminism You want feminism Which brand would you like

Disclaimer: Many of the definitions of the various factions of feminism identified in this page come from feminist sources. I don't necessarily agree with any of those definitions and don't intend to imply any validity of any of them, other than that they are accurate depictions of how the various factions of feminism view themselves.
