Adorable book about different kinds of hugs. From "Hello hugs" to "Good night hugs" my daughter had me reading this book over and over. Cute pictures. Simple sentences and repetition of the word "hug" to help early readers. Great book.

The Hug Book by Sue Fliess Goodreads Share book

This book actually features no humans but rather personified animals which I found to be O.K-altho The images are vivid and inviting, and do not cause discomfort like some children s books which can have rather grotesque physics or misshaped humans, with abstract poses or body features.

Hug by Jez Alborough Goodreads Share book

For the most part this is a wordless book. The only word consistently is "Hug." A little monkey in the jungle sees all the other little babies and their mommies hugging. It is amazing how through the expressions on the monkey's face and the size of the font on the word 'hug' can convey such a strong message. It's very cute.
