Cauldron by Larry Bond

Community Reviews. When looking for a fictional story of modern war, it seems that overwhelmingly people recommend Tom Clancy's Red Storm Rising and Larry Bond's Cauldron among the top handful of books in that genre. If you're interested in reading a book about how a plausible (that's subject to opinion) large scale war could break out,

CAULDRON by Larry Bond Kirkus Reviews

KIRKUS REVIEW. The French are the villains in this new futurotechnothriller by Navy veteran and military analyst Bond (Vortex, 1991; Red Phoenix, 1989)--who continues to write battle scenes good enough to keep the old disbelief suspended in a closet somewhere. The setup this time is an economic and military collaboration between France
