The Goodbye Book by Todd Parr Goodreads

This book is, in a word, fantastic. And valuable. And pitch-perfect. And therapeutic. Okay, so that is a lot of words, but The Goodbye Book deserves a great deal of praise. I read it and remembered being a confused first grader coping with the sudden death of an immediate family member, and I can't tell you how much I wish a book like this had existed for the me back then.

The Goodbye Book never specifies what the exact scenario is, making it an appropriate choice whether a child is dealing with death or another difficult situation. VERDICT An honest but gentle look at the grief that comes with saying goodbye.
