Sleeping with Your Baby A Parent's Guide to Cosleeping

This book talks a lot about safety of bed sharing/cosleeping. It also has a lot of things that I already knew. I have been bed sharing for 6 months since my daughter was born and was hoping this book would have more interesting facts that I didn't know and I was really hoping for a section on how to transition a baby into their own bed.

Essential Gear for Sleeping Lucie's List Best Baby

No matter which sleeping method you choose, your little lamb will need a safe sleeping venue. I recommend a crib for the long-term, BUT don't be surprised one bit if you don't use it at all during the first few months. In fact, most parents end up with their baby in their bedroom for the first few months, which I highly recommend (as do virtually all modern-day pediatricians).
