Realism international relations Wikipedia

Realism is a school of thought in international relations theory, theoretically formalising the Realpolitik statesmanship of early modern Europe. Although a highly diverse body of thought, it can be thought of as unified by the belief that world politics ultimately is always and necessarily a field of conflict among actors pursuing power.

Geopolitical Power Shifts Reports World Economic Forum

The world has moved into a new and unsettling geopolitical phase. It is not just multipolar, but multiconceptual. There is no longer any assumption as there had been in the post Cold War phase, framed by so-called New World Order and Washington Consensus thinking that norms and institutions exist towards which the world's major powers might converge.
