Moore's law Wikipedia

Moore's law came to be widely accepted as a goal for the industry, and it was cited by competitive semiconductor manufacturers as they strove to increase processing power. Moore viewed his eponymous law as surprising and optimistic: "Moore's law is a violation of Murphy's law. Everything gets better and better."

The Adarand Case Constitutional Rights Foundation

Adarand Constructors filed a lawsuit against the Department of Transportation. Adarand claimed that, as the lowest bidder, it should have gotten the guardrail contract. The Department of Transportation argued that it was furthering the goals of its affirmative action program to award more public works projects to companies owned by disadvantaged persons.
