Renovation 4th Edition Completely Revised and Updated

Great book overall but some of the information seems a little bit dated and does not offer advice specific to the different approaches to a brick veneer home vs. a solid brick home (I find most renovation books do not make a distinction so this is more of a failing for the entire genre)

You've Bought the House Now Read the Book This Old House

For the in-depth nitty-gritty of home renovation, nothing compares to this newly revised 1993 favorite. Written by a veteran renovation contractor and educator with a refreshingly liberal attitude toward historical purity (read: replacement windows are okay), it covers the gamut from reglazing a sash to lifting the ridge beam.
