The Golden Book of Fairy Tales Golden Classics Adrienne

Although this particular book is the June 1943 Edition, it is in an "Excellent" condition for its age. This is not a book that has an abundance of actual Fairy Tales and the ones included in the book are not exactly worded like what one would find these days where wording is, let's say, "more refined".

Golden Book of Fairy Tales by Adrienne Segur Hardcover

The best thing about this book is that it makes the fairy tales of Marie-Catharine d'Aulnoy accessible to the modern reader. Madame d'Aulnoy coined the term "fairy tale" when she published her book "Tales of the Fairies." Although most of her tales were embedded in her novels, many of them work well as stand-a-lone fairy tales.
