Why It's Not Smart to Put a Down Payment on a Lease

Many consumers assume that down payments are required on car leases - this is not true at all. In fact, we advise against ANY down payment when you lease. There are several reasons for this, the most important being that you can lose the money you put down if your vehicle is stolen or totaled, especially during the first few months of your lease.

Lease vs Buy Explained by LeaseGuide.com

Lease Payments Two Parts. Lease payments are made up of two parts: a depreciation charge and a finance charge. The depreciation part of each monthly payment compensates the leasing company for the portion of the vehicle's value that is lost during your lease ($7000 in our example above). The finance part (called money factor) is interest on the money the lease company has tied up in the
