The Guardians novel Wikipedia

The Guardians (novel) Crowded city districts and all-pervasive technology make up the Conurbs while manors and rolling countrysides typical of 19th-century England make up the County. The story follows a young Conurban orphan named Rob as he experiences life in both worlds, uncovering truths and choosing sides in the process.

Nicholas Sparks The Guardian

The Guardian, unlike my previous novels, is a story completely derived from my imagination, yet the conception of the story wasn't necessarily more difficult than it has been in the past. Once I'd decided on the theme love and danger it was simply a matter of getting the right elements into the novel.
