Sapphique Incarceron 2 by Catherine Fisher

Sapphique was not better than the first book in the series, but it was easier for me to get through, perhaps because I had much lower expectations. All of my problems with the first book still remain here. The characters, all of them, are pretty much entirely unlikeable.

Sapphique Book Ottawa Public Library BiblioCommons

Sapphique was certainly a good book, and I finished it in a day. The only thing I disliked was the ending, because so many things that got introduced were never explained. But I did like the ending because of how ambiguous it was and all the interpretations you can guess from it.
