Robert Crais Book Series In Order

Elvis Cole is so compelling a character that it is almost like Crais has a voice that he can use to make himself and what is happening in his life felt and heard. When his L.A. Requiem made the NY Times and LA Times bestseller lists, Crais realized just how influential his main book character has become.

The Monkey's Raincoat Elvis Cole and Joe Pike Series 1

The Monkey's Raincoat is as fast-paced as Michael Connelley and as witty as the best Janet Evanovich. It's also a perfect little time capsule for the 1980s (he wears a white blazer and looks for pay phones constantly). I must now read all of the Elvis Cole PI books, which will probably take a few weeks.
