Confinement by Katharine McMahon Goodreads

Confinement is the first of Katharine McMahon's novels that I've read and didn't love. Confinement consists of a dual narrative: one involving Bess Hardemon, the Victorian founder of a prestigious girls' school and the other involving Sarah Beckett, who attends the school in the late 1960s.

Confinement book by Carrie Brown

'confinement' is one of the best books i have read in many years. usually i shy away from refugee stories because they become horribly sentimental, but this is just a nice story about a displaced german tailor.

Total Confinement by Lorna A Rhodes Paperback

"A truly remarkable book. The inside look at supermax confinement alone is worth the price of admission, and the prose sometimes verges on poetry. This is meticulous scholarship." Hans Toch, author of Living in Prison

A sourcebook on solitary confinement

Solitary confinement has not received the attention it merits in international standards. There is a need to further develop protections aimed specifically at reducing its use and mitigating the harm it causes. The Sourcebook on Solitary Confinement is thus an important contribution in a shared
