Eight Million Ways to Die Matthew Scudder Series 5 by

"Eight Million Ways to Die" is splendid as a murder mystery, playing fair with the reader in almost every paragraph, and equally good as a treatise on the sociological pits. But much of its tension and most of its tears derive from character. "Eight Million Ways to Die" is first-rate in all the ways I remember how to count.

Eight Million Ways to Die Audiobook by Lawrence Block

I liked the book. Would you consider the audio edition of Eight Million Ways to Die to be better than the print version? No What other book might you compare Eight Million Ways to Die to and why? None unless it's about you being an alcoholic. What about Lawrence Block s performance did you like? Not really, Burt Reloads is worse.

8 Million Ways to Die 1986 IMDb

I hate it when people slag off a perfectly good film just because it dared to stray slightly away from the book it was based on. However, Lawrence Block, the author of the novel "Eight Million Ways To Die", has said that they seemed to make up the script for this as they went along and it certainly seems that way.
