A Monster Calls. The monster showed up just after midnight. As they do. Conor was awake when it came. He'd had a nightmare. Well, not a nightmare. The nightmare. The one he'd been having a lot lately. The one with the darkness and the wind and the screaming. The one with the hands slipping from his grasp, no matter how hard he tried to hold on.

A story told in an honest voice, by a young boy, a grandmother, a mother, a father, school classmates, and of course a Monster. I could not put this book down. There is so much for the reader to hear and learn in it for different ages, I did not want the story to end.
