The Crayon Box That Talked by Shane Derolf Michael Letzig

Well in Shane DeRolf's book the Crayon Box that talked, all the crayons actually talked to each other. This fictional book is one of my favorites. The Crayon Box that talked is about some crayons that live together and don't get along. Then a child bought the crayons and colored a picture with them.

The Crayon Box that Talked book by Shane DeRolf

I read the book The Crayon Box That Talked to my 2nd Grade students. We all thought that the book was super! We talked about the differences in each other and the students each told another student something they liked about them. The students felt good about themselves and each other! This was a great book to start off our Peace Unit.
