Zen and the Art of Mixing REV 2 Paperback amazon com

Zen and Art of Mixing is a must read for anybody who mixes audio. His approach to mixing is for the benefit of the song and the art, rather than "do this to achieve this current trend in your mixes". In the 20 years I've been recording and mixing music, this is the first book that I read cover to cover and plan on reading again with highlighter in hand.

It really changed and helped me in the way I perceive a mix or a recording session or just dealing with clients and people in general. There's no such thing as a cookbook with recipes on how one should add this or that ingredient in making a good mix, hence Mixerman's writings are gold IMHO. Getting Zen and the art of Producing next month.
