10 of the Best Classic Detective Novels Everyone Should

This 1951 novel is the only one on this list of the greatest classic detective novels to take the form of a historical mystery: Tey's 1950s policeman investigates a 15th-century crime, or rather crimes, as he looks into the life of King Richard III and his alleged guilt over the murder of the Princes in the Tower. The novel took the number one spot in the British Crime Writers Association's 1990 list of The Top 100 Crime Novels of All Time.
