The Surprising Meaning of Joy Comes In The Morning

Joy comes in the morning. It doesn't mean tomorrow. It's not a formula that promises that you'll feel happy at sunrise. It's a promise that will come true when God's sunrise breaks. Scripture is replete with examples of people waiting for God to fulfill his promises and to bring his promised joy. God promised a son to Abraham.

Weeping Endures For a Night But Joy Comes In the Morning

So in Jesus name, I say: let a new hope and courage dawn in your heart right now. Let the fresh wind of the Holy Spirit blow a refreshing breeze across your body, soul, and spirit right now in Jesus name. A new day is dawning. A new start is coming. A new joy is arising in your heart right now. Because weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.
