series, so I had to do a little catch up and chose to read "Crunch Time." It had all the usual Davidson elements and I was glad for it. I felt like I was being reintroduced to old friends and discovering what was going on in their lives. I like Diane Mott Davidson's writing style and her fast pacing when writing a story.

Crunch Time by Diane Mott Davidson Paperback Barnes

I usually love reading Diane Davidson's books but Crunch Time is one of her worst books. I was hoping that Goldy was the victim. The book was so boring it took me days just to finish it.
