Pencil Drawings History Development of Lead Pencils

Pencil lead is a form of carbon, called graphite: derived from the Greek word 'graphein' meaning, to write.

During pencil manufacture, natural graphite is reduced to a powder, blended with clay, then formed into a paste.

This graphite paste is then compressed and extruded into long thin rods, which

Drawing Wikipedia

Drawing is one of the oldest forms of human expression within the visual arts. It is generally concerned with the marking of lines and areas of tone onto paper/other material, where the accurate representation of the visual world is expressed upon a plane surface. Traditional drawings were monochrome, or at least had little colour, while modern colored-pencil drawings may approach or cross a
