Venture Deals Be Smarter Than Your Lawyer and Venture

When I was a founder, VCs hoarded information about how venture capital terms worked to stack the deck in their favor. Along came Brad Feld and Jason Mendelson who started giving away the game by publishing how things worked on their blog.

Feld Thoughts

I used to be chronically late to everything, both personal and professional. In my twenties, before cell phones, I was one of those people that others referred to as having Brad time which did not correlate with the actual time in the world.

How To Deal With Email After A Long Vacation Feld Thoughts

Since I've had dealing with email on my mind recently, I thought I'd write about how to deal with email after a long vacation. Over the years, I've heard over and over again from people who never going on vacation or getting off the grid explaining that they can't imagine doing this because they would be more stressed out when they return to all the email they have to respond to.
