The Secret Pearl by Mary Balogh

The Secret Pearl is a thought provoking, tragic and unusual novel that explores the worst and best aspects of what makes us human. Some people don't care for Mary Balogh's writing because at times, her style comes across as distant.

The Secret Pearl by Mary Balogh Paperback Barnes Noble

Mary Balogh's The Secret Pearl starts off with an emotional wallop with the "brutal deflowering" of the destitute and starving heroine by the "hero." This is a book where the hero basically rapes the heroine and yet is NOT the villain of the story-- the villain is described as being worse.

The Secret Pearl Mary Balogh 35 Time New York Times

The Secret Pearl was first published in September, 1991. It is often named by long-time readers as one of their favorites among my books. It is an intense, passionate book with its deeply wounded hero and heroine, who have to find healing and wholeness through each other before they can commit themselves to loving each other for a lifetime.
