Popular Soviet Union Books Goodreads

Quotes Tagged Soviet Union . The Soviet Union is gone, and the borders are as free and passable as they've ever been. And yet, when a Russian moves between the two universes, this feeling of finality persists, the logical impossibility of a place like Russia existing alongside the civilized world, of Ann Arbor, Michigan,

10 Books That Were Banned in the Soviet Union Culture Trip

Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe. In the views of the Soviet government, history is made by a collective effort, not by the acts of separate people. As a result the book was basically rewritten, skipping most of the time Robinson Crusoe spent alone and placing more emphasis on ideas of the importance of human society.

What are the best books on Soviet History AskHistorians

Pipes is/was a respected authority on the Soviet Union, and this book was the definitive work on the early years for a while after its publication. However in recent years its argument has been critiqued and it no longer holds the same status it once did, though it is still a good read and important to the literature.

Censorship in the Soviet Union Wikipedia

Soviet censorship of film. The centrality of Stalin in film censorship lasted to his death in 1953, but the strictness of Soviet censorship did not survive him. Khrushchev succeeded Stalin as the USSR's Premier, and articulated de-Stalinization in his secret speech to the 20th Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union.
