Alter Robert The Art of Biblical Narrative Revised and

Alter identifies several common type-scenes in biblical narrative: annunciation of birth, 3 encounter with betrothed at a well, epiphany in a field, the initiatory trial, danger in the desert, and testament of the death of the hero (60). He then uses the betrothal scene as a case study for analyzing type-scenes.

The Whole Biblical Narrative

The biblical narrative establishes that an originator, before time or any other reality exists, begins creating reality. Rephrasing: In eternity, a condition of no time, no space, no energy, no natural laws, no anything that is, nothing, no-thing, no realities transcendent God begins creating realities.
