Coyote Waits book by Tony Hillerman ThriftBooks

Coyote Waits is one of Hillerman's best. I have read most of Hillerman's Navajo Mysteries and found this one to be near the top, the prose is simple and elegant, (no wasted words here) the landscapes descriptive and vivid (but not romantic). Coyote Waits is an excellent mystery, not overly complex or mind-numbingly predictable.

Coyote Waits Leaphorn Chee 10 by Tony Hillerman

Coyote Waits was an excellent mystery, but I thought that Chee was sometimes annoying and whiny. Since he'd been badly injured at the beginning of the book and was in pain he had a right to whine, however, that wasn't what he was complaining about.
