The third major character of the book is Reno, Nevada itself. While some locations in the book are fictional, the majority are real. While Reno is known as "the biggest little city in the world," Vlautin actually makes Reno feel like a small town. Vlautin's greatest achievement throughout The Motel Life is how real he makes these characters.

Recently, I saw the The Motel Life with Emile Hirsch, Stephen Dorff and Dakota Fanning and thought it was really interesting, captivating and told a true, dark story of two brothers. Directed by the Polsky Brothers, they took on the adaptation of The Motel Life. I haven't read the book, but I wonder what the book fans thought of the movie.
