The Little Mermaid Hans Christian Andersen Book Summary

The Little Mermaid. Author: Hans Christian Andersen. Somewhere far away on the sea surface the water was beautiful, clear, blue but very deep. However deep or far away may the surface be it does not mean there is only sand below. The sea hides over there magical trees, herbs, fishes that are big and small.

Hans Christian Andersen The Little Mermaid

It shall be, said the little mermaid. Then the witch placed her cauldron on the fire, to prepare the magic draught. Cleanliness is a good thing, said she, scouring the vessel with snakes, which she had tied together in a large knot; then she pricked herself in the breast, and let the black blood drop into it.

Queerness Hans Christian Andersen and The Little Mermaid

There have been a lot of articles recently about the queer-coding of the original animated The Beauty and the Beast, but they're for some reason ignoring the other Disney film the late, great Howard Ashman worked on: The Little Mermaid.. Which is puzzling, because the original fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen is one of the saddest (gay) love letters of all time.
