Hawaii by James A Michener Goodreads

Hawaii was the first Michener novel I read, more because of my interest in Hawaii the place than in the novel or writer. Having been lucky enough to travel there several times in my life, I've been fascinated in the history and culture.

Hawaii by James A Michener Paperback Barnes Noble

It is the history of the Hawaiian Islands in a novel form; the narrative parallels 'real' history so closely that sometimes the only differences are the names Mr. Michener substitutes for real-life characters. I've read 'straight' histories such as Hawaii Pono, which turned out to be the same information in a much less enjoyable style.
