RELATED BOOK :

Expectation Hangover Overcoming Disappointment in Work

Unlike her previous book, this book doesn't include as many stories, but provides many more exercises and tools to help one deal with an Expectation Hangover. The author, being very generous, also shares much of these tools on her blog (I could see similar stuff), but this book definitely provides a deeper insight into such topics and illustrate them with stories too.

Read Alouds for Rule Creation Responsive Classroom

Reading this book could inspire a great class discussion about why rules exist. And, because at the end of the book the boy s thoughts turn in a more positive direction (What if everyone gave out hugs?), you could also use it to start a conversation about rules that would make your class a safe and happy place.

Expectations of Modernity Google Books

The book is often moving--the hardships of life in this 'abject' postmodern setting are too evident, but the amazing creativity of urban 'citemene' culture is wonderfully described. And Ferguson's account of the fraught, conflictual and sometimes violent nature of gender relations is extremely important.
