Peachtree Road by Anne Rivers Siddons Goodreads

This book is largely set in Buckhead, where I used to live (1948-1956) and went to school (North Fulton HS 1948-1950). She defines (p.23) Buckhead as stretching from Peachtree Creek on the south to West Paces Ferry Road on the north, from Northside Drive on the west to Peachtree Road on the east.

Right before starting Peachtree Road, I read Nora, Nora: A Novel. I really did enjoy that one and it held my interest. Then I started Peachtree Road. I found it way too wordy and just couldn't imagine getting through the 600+ pages, so I put it down. I will go back and read it at some point, but I do wish the book was a little more concise.
