10 Screenwriting Mistakes to Avoid via John Carter

John Carter never achieves this, which led to one of its biggest criticisms that it was way too slow. 6) The more convoluted your plot, the more scenes of exposition you will have. The more scenes of exposition you have, the more boring your script will be John Carter suffers greatly from this. It has multiple plotlines (Helium being needed, alien baby harvesting, princesses who need to get married, multiple aliens, a confusing war, a character who needs to get home, etc).
